Parat Solutions announces $500 education stimulus discount

Berwyn, PA April 23, 2009 – PARAT Solutions, an innovative manufacturer of mobile computing transport solutions, today announced the “Stimulate Your Stimulus” discount offering a $500 instant discount to the first 50 customers that respond to the promotion by June 30, 2009.

The offer underscores PARAT’s commitment to the education technology marketplace. As stated by Director of Sales, Peter Jauss, “this program is designed specifically to help school districts across the country maximize their budgets. We want to do our part to encourage investment in upgrading school IT infrastructures”.

The $500 instant discount applies toward the purchase of a PARADIDACT® Mobile IT Lab, available in two feature-rich models for 12 or 24 laptops. Integrated features include: a wireless access point, multimedia speaker system and switch to enable remote network updates via wake-on-LAN. The carts can be configured to suit nearly any make or model and it is compatible with both PC and Mac systems.

Much more than a typical laptop cart, the PARADIDACT® Mobile IT Lab cost-effectively captures the key elements of a wired computer lab in a compact form factor that can be moved effortlessly between locations.

The “Stimulate Your Stimulus” $500 discount is valid in the United States on orders placed directly with PARAT Solutions, LLC by June 30, 2009. It applies only to the purchase of a PARADIDACT® Mobile IT Lab and may not be combined with any other discounts or offers. Additional program details are available at www.paratsolutions.com/stimulus.
